

Polar Plunge Takes A Dive!!!

At our LPK association board meeting this evening, we talked about the expected weather conditions on Saturday: temps in the 30s, etc.

We decided to POSTPONE THE POLAR PLUNGE to a date to be determined. Stay tuned for details!

Our thinking is that we want a good turnout for a fun and relaxing party, and of course we want safe conditions for those who want to plunge into the pool. We have therefore decided to postpone to another date soon when the outlook is better.

Please pardon any inconvenience caused by this change in plans.

Let me know if you have questions, and thanks for your patience!
